

1st PAINTING COMPETITION
FOR YOUNG ARTISTS
2022

«ASPECTS OF TOMORROW»

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The KINANIS LLC Law firm (hereinafter referred to as "Kinanis Law Firm") organizes and finances the "1st PAINTING COMPETITION FOR YOUNG ARTISTS - 2022" ("The Competition").

OBJECTIVES

The Competition has a double objective. On the one hand, it aims to promote and stimulate interest and creativity in painting among young artists and to offer them the opportunity to promote themselves as artists and exhibit their works.

On the other hand, it has a charitable character. All proceeds and sponsorships, such as these are specified below, will be donated to the charitable foundation "VOICE FOR AUTISM", details of which can be found at the link: <https://voiceforautism.org/>

THE THEME

«ASPECTS OF TOMORROW»

The theme of the competition is inspired by and relates to the 17 sustainable goals of the U.N. In particular, the competition focuses on the following 3 objectives, where the participants are invited to draw inspiration to create:

1. Less inequalities
2. Sustainable cities and communities
3. Peace, justice and strong ties

The art works must strictly meet the above objectives. Specific details can be found on the UN website here.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

By participating in this Competition, the "participants", accept and agree to ALL the rules and conditions of this document herein specified.

Non-compliance with these terms and conditions or any breach of any one of them, will result in the exclusion and disqualification of the respective participant from the Competition.

ARTWORKS THAT HAVE ALREADY BEEN USED FOR SUBMISSION TO OTHERS
COMPETITIONS OR FOR ACADEMIC OR OTHER PURPOSES ARE EXCLUDED

More specifically, works of art that have taken part in any other competition, or used as part of the participants' academic or other obligations, will not be accepted and will be excluded. Originality is required in the work based on the subject and time after the announcement of the competition.

INAPPROPRIATE AND OFFENSIVE ART WORKS' CONTENT

Artworks that portray or otherwise include inappropriate and/or offensive content, including provocative nudity, violence, human rights and/or environmental violation, and/or any other contents deemed to be contrary to the law, religious, cultural & moral traditions and practices, are strictly prohibited and will be immediately disqualified.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE – SUBMISSION VENUE - PROCEDURE

The art works that will participate in the competition must be delivered and be received by the organizers no later than Monday 14/11/2022, at 4.00 pm at the building AKAMANTIS BUSINESS CENTER, 10 Egypt street, 1097 – Nicosia tel. 22 67 67 97.

The art works will be coded (numbered) upon delivery by the recipient. Along with the art works, the Artists will be asked to complete and submit two forms attached as FORM A and FORM B.

FORM A will include the title of the project and a very brief explanation of it and its relation to the subject. FORM A shall be completed for every art work separately.

FORM B will include the personal details of the artist. FORM B will be delivered in a sealed envelope. For each participant only one FORM B will be completed.

No art works received after the deadline will be accepted, unless specifically authorized by the organizers or the Committee of Judges. The organisers or the Committee of Judges reserves the right to change the deadline mentioned above, if necessary.

ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE IN THE COMPETITION

The Competition is addressed to creative people, with a maximum age limit of 25 years and minimum age of 17 years, regardless of nationality, with a permanent place of residence on Cyprus. Age limits are met if participants are at least 17 years old on 14/11/2022 and a maximum of 25 years on 14/11/2022 which is the latest date of submission of projects.

Cypriot students abroad are welcome to participate. Foreign students who are currently studying in Cypriot universities and schools in Cyprus may also participate.

The members of the Judges' Committee are not allowed to participate in the Competition.

NUMBER OF ART WORKS FOR PARTICIPATION

Each participant can participate by submitting up to 3 (three) works of art, which must correspond to the theme of the Competition.

ART WORK SPECIFICATIONS

Artworks participating in the Competition must meet the following eligibility criteria and specifications:

Genre - Materials: Two-dimensional work (pencil, paint, collage, mixed media without restriction).

Dimensions: No limitation on dimensions.

Participants who do not fulfil these eligibility criteria will be deemed ineligible and disqualified.

PROMOTION OF THE COMPETITION AND POSSIBLE USE OF ART WORKS AND OTHER PERSONAL DATA OF THE PARTICIPANTS

By entering to the Competition, each participant, agrees, consents and allows Kinanis Law Firm to take such steps so that the contesting art works and the name, occupation, nationality, country of residence and related personal information as per the submitted information by each participant:

A. be published as selected, in the commemorative book, Competition invitation, circulars for promotion of the Competition, invitation for the award ceremony, in Kinanis Law Firm publications and brochures, its web pages, its website as cover or other initial or inside pages, social media and the press, and no separate consent will be requested,

B. be exhibited on the exhibition, (award ceremony), that will take place on the date of the event, at Kinanis Law Firm premises, at Akamantis Business Center, and on any other material or place, solely for promoting the Competition and its objectives and not for business/commercial purposes, and without any remuneration being due to the owner of the photograph.

The works will not be resold, used or exhibited by any other third party except as provided in the terms of this Contest.

Works which will not be awarded or not sold at auction will be returned to their owners.

SPECIAL CONSENT

By entering this Competition, each participant gives his/her explicit consent to receive via email promotional material on future competitions of a similar nature to be organized by Kinanis Law Firm.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS - COPYRIGHT

Each participant by participating in the Competition confirms and warrants that the art works are its own original work and do not infringe any third-party rights.

Submitted artworks must be original and created by the participant after the announcement of the Competition. They must not contain any materials owned or controlled by a third party, must not infringe any copyright, trademark, moral rights, rights of privacy/publicity or intellectual property rights of any third person or entity.

Participants who will not comply with the above request will be disqualified. Copyright of the art works will remain at all times with the participating artist/creator. Participants retain the ownership and all their intellectual property rights for future use of their unsold works, subject to the terms and conditions for their participation in this Competition. Sold art works will remain at the property of the purchasers thereof and shall no longer the artists have any right over them, except that they were and are the creators of each project.

THE COMMITTEE OF JUDGES

A Committee of 5 independent Judges will consider and evaluate the art works submitted taking into account the theme of the Competition, technical excellence, composition, overall impact, the quality of the work of the participant, artistic merit, originality, subject and style as well as the personal perception of the theme conveyed by the participant.

The following persons constitute the Committee of Judges:

- Kostas Mantzalos, Professor, Dean of the School of Fine Arts, communication and cultural studies, Erasmus and Academic Minister Department of Arts and Communication, Frederick University.
- Sofia Hatzipapa, Associate Professor, Fine Arts, School of Humanities, Social and Education Sciences, Department of Arts, European University.
- Artemis Eleftheriadou, Visual Communication, History of Art, Associate Professor, Dept. Arts and Communication Unit, Arts, Media, Visual Studies Center, Frederick University.
- Maria Stavridis, Lecturer and coordinator of the Graphics program of Communication at the University of Nicosia.
- Ivi Papaioannou, Archaeologist and Art Historian, PhD Candidate in Museum Education, Academy executive at Kinanis Law Firm.

The Committee of Judges on its sole undisputable and conclusive judgement, shall assess and determine the winning art works.

The art works that will be awarded by the decision of the Committee of Judges are divided into three categories. These are:

1. The winning works (1st, 2nd and 3rd)
2. The honourable mentions (1st, 2nd and 3rd) and
3. The runner-up works (short listed) – expected to be around 25 - 35.

Overall, all three categories of the awarded art works will be referred to as the awardees artworks. The art works which will not be awarded will then be returned to their owners as indicated above.

The results and the winners will be announced and published accordingly, by email, on Kinanis Law Firm's website, in local press and magazines and on social media, such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, etc.

The decision of the Committee of Judges will be final binding on all participants in respect to all matters relating to the Competition.

The Committee of Judges appointed, reserve the right to call for clarifications or for other related to the Competition information and the submitted art works. A work of art may be disregarded and disqualified if this information is not provided.

The Committee of Judges will have the final decision whether any project will be excluded from the Competition because it does not meet the conditions of the Competition or for any other reason.
